

CHAPTER II

STUDENTS

SECTION XIX. STUDENT CONDUCT AND APPEAL PROCEDURES

Each institution shall establish rules and regulations governing student conduct and shall have a written Code of Student Conduct that includes the policies and regulations, and due process procedures governing students. The Code shall be published and distributed regularly to the students and be readily available at designated offices on campus.

A student may appeal to the Board of Supervisors if the sanction is one of suspension from the university for a period of one academic year, or if the sanction is of greater severity. For appeals regarding less severe sanctions, the final appeal shall be at the university level. If the student chooses to appeal to the Board of Supervisors after all administrative procedures have been exhausted at the institutional level, the appeal must be within 30 calendar days of the institution's decision. The Board's review is limited to a determination of compliance with established and appropriate procedures at the institutional level. The student shall be notified of the Board's decision.
