SEARCH COMMITTEES

Effective Date: July 1, 2001

Cancellation: None

Chapter: Faculty and Staff

Policy and Procedures Memorandum

All university search committees for vacancies at the level of dean or higher shall include at least one student. The student must be in good academic standing and have a knowledgeable background pertinent to the position for which the committee is searching.

The university shall establish written criteria and procedures by which students are selected to serve on such search committees.

It is recommended that all persons not experienced in serving on search committees participate in an orientation session.
